*The Board asks the public to follow the standard rules of public decorum (e.g., silence your phones, no interrupting other speakers). Please keep your remarks directed to the Board as a whole, not to individual Board members or to the applicant or the audience. There will be no back and forth discussion between the public and members of the Board or the applicant. There is a 5-minute time limit per individual speaker; speakers are not allowed to "borrow" or "transfer" other people's minutes. Each speaker should try not to duplicate questions already asked and should keep their remarks focused on the specific matter under review by the Board.
